

DOLLAR-FOR DOLLAR

Scott F. Albright, superintendent of industrial relations, National Supply co., this year's Commerce and Industry chairman for the Torrance Area Red Cross Fund drive, and Pat Calderon, president of The National Supply Employees' club, graphically portray the combined efforts of the management and the employees in the 1957 Red Cross Fund drive. The firm contributed $1600, matching the Employees' Club's contribution of $1600.

GALLON DONORS

Mrs. Clara A. Conner (r), Torrance postmaster, and currently fund campaign chairman for the Red Cross, and Dr. Don C. Moshos, chairman of the Torrance-Lomita branch, American National Red Cross, were awarded gallon donor pins for donating a total of eight pints of blood each. Making the award was Mrs. Gordon Jones, blood program chairman.—Press Photo.

HealthCenter Open House

Los Angeles County Health Center will be held at the Torrance Health Center from 2:30-4:30 p.m., March 22, Dr. B. A. Kogan, district health officer, has announced.

Lions Club Donates To Scholarships

Torrance Lions club contributed $100 to the American Field Service International Scholarship fund this week. The money will be used to bring high school students from foreign countries to study in Torrance.

Here presently on such a scholarship are Christa Volkman of Vienna, Austria, and Carl Hoybye of Copenhagen, Denmark. Both youngsters spoke to the club, as did Jean Salomone, North High student who spent a summer in Germany as an exchange student.
